AVIAN INFLUENZA INFORMATION SHEET

Veterinarians and Avian Influenza

FAST FACTS:

- The presence of highly pathogenic avian influenza has been confirmed in commercial poultry flocks in the Midwest.
- Continue to follow strict biosecurity measures when going on and off poultry premises;
- Remember that avian influenza is a reportable disease and must be reported to DATCP within one day.
- Educate your clients on the current risks of highly pathogenic avian influenza in the Midwest.
- When you meet with clients, ask if they have registered their premises with DATCP.
  - Explain that premises registration data is an emergency management tool used to protect flocks from disease
  - Refer them to www.wiid.org to register their premises
